Lincoln County Facts

Lincoln County is the gateway to Clark Hill Lake (Thurmond Lake). It is one of the most scenic counties in our area. It boasts the longest shoreline along the lake and is known for its recreational qualities. Large amounts of federal property makes it ideal for hunting, fishing, boating, and swimming. The soil characteristics of Lincoln county have made it desirable for tree farming, and rolling cattle and horse farms. The still rural characteristics of Lincoln County make it ideal for retirement and recreational homes.
